

Jack Endersby

Call: 2024

clerks@4bb.co.uk

020 7092 1900

Jack Endersby began his first six pupillage in July 2025 under the supervision of Julia Mackworth.

Jack spent several years at Cardiff University, where he studied Ancient History and History before completing a law conversion and the Bar Training Course (with LLM).

Prior to his pupillage, Jack worked as a County Court Advocate. He represented a variety of clients throughout London and the South East in a range of hearings and small claims trials.

Jack aims to develop a practice covering all aspects of criminal law.

Memberships

- The Honourable Society of Gray's Inn

Qualifications

- 2022, First Class (Hons), BA Ancient History & History (Cardiff University)
- 2023, Distinction, Graduate Diploma in Law (Cardiff University)
- 2024, Very Competent / Distinction, Bar Training Course / LLM (Cardiff University)

Qualifications

- 2022, First Class (Hons), BA Ancient History & History (Cardiff University)

□ 2023, Distinction, Graduate Diploma in Law (Cardiff University)

□ 2024, Very Competent / Distinction, Bar Training Course / LLM (Cardiff University)